

Triangular Trade & Mercantilism

Essential Question ?	How was Triangular Trade change Mercantilism?
What is Mercantilism?	Mercantilism-the economic system based on Gold, Silver and trade.
How did Triangular trade Work?	 The diagram illustrates the Triangular Trade system as a triangle with four vertices. At the top-left vertex is 'USA', with 'Raw Materials (rice, tobacco, fur)' and '(rum, iron, tools)' listed next to it. At the top-right vertex is 'England', with 'Finished Products' listed next to it. At the bottom-left vertex is 'South America'. At the bottom-right vertex is 'Africa'. A blue double-headed arrow connects USA and England. A blue arrow points from Africa to South America. A blue arrow points from South America to USA. A vertical line extends from the South America-Africa connection, labeled 'Middle Passage (slave trade)'.
What are Imports?	Imports-Product brought in from other countries.
What are Exports?	Exports-Product sent to other countries to make money.
Summery	