Background Check- If you plan on volunteering at the school in any capacity, going on field trips, helping with field day, etc.. you must have a current background check on file. It usually takes about 2 weeks to get approved. So don't delay!

Homework

This week we are adding some nightly math homework. These are pages from their workbooks. The concept on the homework is one that was covered in class that day. These pages are for extra practice. Please complete & return to school as soon as you can.

MATH

This week we will be reviewing rounding and different strategies for adding 2 and 3 digit numbers. We will also be reviewing strategies for subtracting larger numbers. The commutative and associative properties of addition will be introduced.

Science

This week we will continue our investigation of the properties of matter and learn more about mass. We will discuss the Constitution for Constitution Day on Wednesday, September 17th.

Writing

In writing we will be working on good leads and endings to our stories. We will learn different types of leads and endings to make our writing stand out.

Reading

We will continue our metacognitive strategy of visualizing with non-fiction texts. We are also going to start a novel study of Charlotte's Web. This will be leading the way into literature circles/book clubs.
